

ARIZONA
ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®

September 1, 2005

It is my honor and pleasure, on behalf of the 44,000 Arizona REALTORS®, to announce Vicki Cox Golder's candidacy for 2008 NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® First Vice President.

For the past eight years I have had the pleasure of working with Vicki on a number of committees for the Arizona Association of REALTORS®. It was evident from the beginning that Vicki is a true leader. Her dedication and energy create a climate of enthusiasm and success. Vicki has that innate ability to listen to others and consider their opinions, but to take decisive action at the appropriate time. She is a consistent leader.

Whatever situation is presented to Vicki, she handles it quickly and effectively. Undaunted by setbacks, Vicki keeps her eye on the goal and moves forward to reach it. I don't recall ever serving with someone more resourceful and focused, qualities especially important to lead our association through the challenging years ahead.

Vicki is respected among her peers not only as a real estate professional but as a concerned and active citizen. Vicki's involvement with the community at large has gained her the admiration of government leaders, being asked to serve on and chair many local and state committees and boards.

Most importantly, Vicki leads with integrity. She is a staunch advocate of professional standards and holds herself to the highest standards. I have every confidence in Vicki as a leader of NAR, and encourage you to strongly consider Vicki as the 2008 First Vice President.

Sincerely,

Tim A. Hatlestad, 2005 AAR President
